Public transport accessibility in Berlin: BVG stops within 400m

Priority Gaps (>=50 persons/ha, >= 1 ha)
BVG Stops
More than 400 m from a stop
Berlin Boundary
OpenStreetMap

0 7.5 15 km

Key findings
- 7,332 BVG-served stops within Berlin
- 95.9% of residents live within 400 m of a stop
- 99.85% live within 800 m
- About 162,000 residents (4.1%) are more than 400 m away
- 280 priority areas (≥50 persons/ha, ≥1 ha) hold about 59,900 people

Areas without orange shading are within 400m of a BVG stop.

Most area covered by the orange shading consist of natural locations such as forests and lakes

Data: VBB GTFS; ALKIS Berlin Landesgrenze (SenStadt, dl-de-zero-2.0); Einwohnerdichte 2025, Umweltatlas (Amt für Statistik Berlin-Brandenburg, CC BY 3.0); basemap © OpenStreetMap contributors. Buffers are straight-line distances, not walking routes. Population is estimated from block-level density.